DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Goldman.

Goldman discloses a selection and retrieval method for music comprising disk storage 16 which contains a plurality of songs, work stations 14, and modem 18. As stated in column 6 lines 6-11, the work stations download music from a server not present in memory.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Rajasekharan et al. Rajasekharan et al disclose a digital audio/video distribution system comprising digital information server 210 which contains digital audio, network 200 and computer system 240. The server 210 is coupled to the computer system 240, which obtains digital content from the server and stores it in element 320 (figure 3) and plays digital content sent from the server 210 using the player 310. See column 3 lines 21-64.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Berman et al. Berman et al disclose a system for playback of network audio material on demand comprising audio material server 104, which has a plurality of songs, DUL server 107 and user system 100. As stated in column 6 line 64 – column 8 line 43, the user has the ability to obtain songs from the server 104 and reproduce them.
